About Me

Marlise Webber is a certified family nurse practitioner with Goshen Center for Cancer Care. She focuses on diagnosis and treatment of patients with lung and respiratory conditions. Marlise works closely with pulmonologists and oncologists to manage a range of chronic conditions, including COPD/emphysema, lung cancer and shortness of breath.

For more than a decade, Marlise worked in hospital settings as an emergency care nurse and with patients in surgical units.

Marlise enjoys hiking, traveling and new experiences with her family when she is away from work.

Philosophy of Care

Marlise believes every patient deserves an advocate who wants the best care possible, based on their individual needs. She provides education to help patients understand their treatment options so they can take an active role in their care.
