Biography

Kim W. Kahler, MSN, ACNP-BC, is a nurse practitioner who provides care at Goshen Heart & Vascular Center. With over 20 years of nursing experience, he is completely devoted to his patients. Prior to joining Goshen Heart & Vascular Center, Kim worked as a nurse practitioner at Goshen Center for Cancer Care. He was also a nurse practitioner at the Nebraska Heart Institute and a medical oncology nurse practitioner at Great Plains Regional Medical Center, both in North Platte, NE. Throughout his career, Kim has served in several areas of nursing including emergency room, intensive care, cardiothoracic surgery and as a nursing coordinator. In addition to his bachelor's and master's degrees in nursing, Kim also holds bachelor's degrees in education and life science. Just as dedicated to his country as to his patients, Kim serves as a lieutenant colonel in the Air Force Reserves at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio.

Philosophy of Care

Kim believes that quality health care involves determining how all aspects of a person's life impact his or her health. He approaches each patient with deep personal commitment, building a relationship based on compassion and honesty that helps him provide everyone with the best possible care.
